

Autumn Art Exhibition

After the success of last year's Easter Art Exhibition, we are planning to have another one this autumn.

The theme this time will be "remembering".

We have chosen this theme to fit in with the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War.

Work does not need to directly relate to the war or that anniversary but can be your reflection on "remembering" in whatever way you choose. It might relate to a person or a memory of something that is important to you.

The exhibition will take place between Friday 9th November and Sunday 18th November 2018 in the church centre. We are happy to welcome submissions in any media you choose: painting, drawing, photography, mixed media, print, sculpture; the choice is yours.

Once again, there will be an open evening on the first night. Last year this was a really nice evening, so do please feel free to invite friends or family to join with you on that occasion and come along to see everyone's work. We would also like to explore the idea of having the exhibition open to the community at some point, possibly the first Saturday. We would welcome any offers of help with this.

This year we are also asking for an "optional" submission fee of £5.00 per person to help offset costs. Please note this is optional and we would much rather have your submission than your money should this be difficult.

If you would like your work to be included in this year's exhibition, please complete a submission form which you can find at the back of church. We would welcome up to two pieces of art per person.
